81 VALLETTA - PAOLA - TARXIEN - BULEBEL - ZEJTUN - MARSAXLOKK

Route 81 calls at the stop called Marsaxlokk, which is by the harbour where the famous market takes place (biggest on Sundays), then runs south along the harbour, looping back inland to terminate at Xerriex by the school, 200 metres inland from the harbour (walk along the street called St Andrija). Route 85 approaches Marsaxlokk from the south and only serves the south end of the harbour (alight at Kavallerizza if you want to walk the whole length of the harbour - half a mile) then terminates at the Xerriex stop. On Sundays most buses take the 85 routeing due to congestion.

All buses back to Valletta are route 81 and leave from the Xerriex stop (to avoid the walk you could catch the incoming 81 at the Marsaxlokk stop by the harbour to go round to the terminus if you don't mind the bus waiting for time there, but note that only route 81 does this, not route 85 - see timings below). It's complicated! For additional non-stop service from Valletta to Marsaxlokk and back on Sundays see route TD10.

For the Tarxien Temples alight at the Neolitici stop (on the Tarxien one-way system). To return to Valletta use the Antnin stop, just north of where the one-way system starts (next stop northbound after Brittanja).

All northbound journeys are numbered 82 and take an inland route through the town passing the impressive Parish Church (Sajjied stop). See route 80 for alternative route via Santa Lucija and Zejtun.

If travelling from Valletta to Birzebbuga, routes 82 and 82B call at the Buni stop near Pretty Bay (as do all buses back to Valletta, on the other side of the road), but note that after Sabiha route 82A turns right before the Buni stop, its next stop being Xbieki, 150 meters inland from the bay.
